Note for parents of children in 3rd Class

17-06-2022

Dear Parents,

Please note the third-class booklist tends to be a bit more costly than other years as the children have now entered into the Senior end of Primary Education.

Some of the books listed above such as (English Dictionary, Irish/English Dictionary, Oxford School Atlas, Glance Card for Irish Verbs) are all costs that will not be incurred again as the children will use all of these items for the next four years of Primary School. If the children have siblings in an older class, these items may be shared with their older siblings there is no need to buy a new set except for The Glance Card as this will be used for learning Irish Verbs.

Thanking you,

Kind regards,

Elaine Duddy
